

NEWS GATHERED FROM SOUTHSIDE

Forty Men Thrown Out of Work By Wednesday's Disastrous Fire.

A SWANSBORO MARRIAGE

Miss Daisy Wills and Mr. Willie Allen the Contracting Parties. Painful Burns.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, July 20, 1905. Much of the insurance on the Bureau Furniture and Manufacturing Company's plant, destroyed Wednesday by fire, had been cancelled about a month ago. The officers of the Virginia State Insurance Company announced yesterday morning that the policies issued on the plant by them had been cancelled.

Policies amounting to $5,000 from companies represented by Mr. George A. Gibson had also been cancelled.

The list in force up to the time of the fire is as follows:

Home	$1,500
St. Paul	1,000
Phoenix	1,500
Scottish Union and National	2,000
Other companies, about	6,000
Total	$12,000

About forty men were thrown out of work by the fire, and many of them lost tools valued at quite a considerable sum.

Swansboro Marriage.

Miss Daisy Wills, of Swansboro, and Mr. Willie A. Allen, of Amelia county, were married at 11 o'clock yesterday morning in the home of the bride, Rev. W. V. Shirk performed the ceremony.

The wedding was a quiet home celebration, there being no bridesmaids or groomsmen.

The bride wore a simple traveling gown of white embroidered material, with a glove to match. Immediately after the nuptial knot had been tied Mr. and Mrs. Allen took the 12:10 train to Amelia, where they will make their future home.

The bride is descended from well known old Virginia families. Her mother, Mrs. Allen, traces her lineage back to several generations to the Henry Clay and the old Claiborne families, and she is also directly descended from General Charles Harrison, of Revolutionary fame, and to General Butts.

Mr. Allen is a prosperous and well known young farmer of Amelia.

The bride was warmly congratulated, and many useful and ornamental wedding presents were given her by a large number of friends.

On Wednesday night, the eve of the wedding, the bride's parents tendered an ante-nuptial reception to her, the groom and their friends. A large number of people were present, and the evening was passed very pleasantly.

Burns Are Very Painful.

The condition of Mr. John Anderson, of No. 1606 Everett Street, the night watchman who was badly burned in the fire at the Bureau Furniture and Manufacturing Company's plant Wednesday night, is said by Dr. Lawrence Ingram, the attending physician, to be somewhat serious, but not necessarily dangerous.

Mr. Anderson's face was badly burned, his eyebrows and moustache singed off, and his hands and arms considerably blistered.

He did not, as reported yesterday morning, jump from a window, but made his escape by the stairway. He is now resting quietly at his home, where he is receiving the best attention.

It is said that the company will rebuild as soon as all the insurance is collected and circumstances will permit. It is doubtful, though, that the old site will be chosen again for the new plant.

Date of Primary.

Wednesday afternoon the local chairmen in the legislative district composed of Manchester, Chesterfield and Powhatan decided to fix the date of the primary for the candidates for the House of Delegates to August 22d, the same date in which the State primary will be held.

The chairmen of the district are Philip V. Coghill, Chesterfield; R. L. French, of Manchester; and A. M. Howard, of Powhatan. The candidates must notify their chairmen of their candidacy on or before August 25th. As soon as their names are in the chairman will notify all candidates as to the amount of their primary fees.

The candidates for the Manchester, Chesterfield and Powhatan district are Messrs. Willis C. Pulliam and R. S. Rivers, of Powhatan; and W. W. Baker, the incumbent, is a candidate for re-election for the Chesterfield seat.

TEACHEY HANGED.

Kept His Nerve and Maintained His Innocence to the Last.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WILMINGTON, N. C., July 20.—Dan Teachey was hanged this morning at 10:40 o'clock at Kewaneeville for the murder of Robert Riverbank, the execution taking place with unusual order and in the presence of a large number of spectators.

Life was pronounced extinct in seventeen minutes by the attending physician. Teachey, however, declared to the end that he was innocent of the crime which was laid to his charge.

After the hanging, the body was taken from his cell to the gallows at 10:30 o'clock. There were present inside the jail enclosure twenty-five citizens and three physicians, each of the party having special permission from the sheriff to be there.

A condemned man had previously partaken of a hearty breakfast and maintained his nerve to the last moment. He said to those present that he had not committed the murder, and that while some people had done him a wrong, he had not done them any harm. He had been in the Presbyterian Church and was baptized before his execution.

ANNEXATION IS STILL A LIVE ISSUE

Bright Prospects for Fair and Reasonable Compromise.

MAY BE CONSIDERED TO-NIGHT

Those Who Desire Extension Ready to Yield to One Another.

Renewed interest has been aroused in the subject of annexation, both among those who are supporting the Mills plan and those who have all along contended for the broader lines, and it is confidently expected that a fair and reasonable compromise will be reached at this meeting or set for a special one, to be held later on.

It is not proposed by Messrs. Cannon and Pollock, and those who are with them for the enlarged plan, to press for the report of the committee, which was recently defeated and reintroduced, but it is their purpose to modify this in an effort to meet the views of all parties in interest. The Mills plan can never win, according to the opinion of those in a position to understand the situation. Indeed, there have been several futile attempts to override the veto of the Mayor, but never have the leaders been able to get the necessary twenty-four votes.

The plan which it is proposed to bring in from the Ordinance Committee now will, it is contended, satisfy all save those, if any such there be, who desire simply to override the veto of the Mayor.

Still a Live Issue.

The issue is evidently a very live one in Richmond, and citizens here are anxious that the city shall take its stand along with Memphis, Nashville, Norfolk and others that are moving industriously along this line.

Of course, there are those who do not desire any scheme of annexation, and there is no secret about it that some of the councilmen are of this mind and faith. But the large majority of citizens upon the sessions of the Council and committee some time ago, when the matter was being debated, plainly indicated that there is a widespread public sentiment among the people for extending the corporate limits of the city and for affording opportunities for better and cheaper homes and for more manufacturing industries.

It may be that the measure which it is proposed to bring out of the Ordinance Committee in the shape of a compromise will not pass for several months, but there is an air of confidence among all those who really want annexation, whether they have supported the Mills plan or not, that before long a fair and equitable plan will be adopted, and the present limits of the city will be materially extended.

Cotton Report Matter.

(By Associated Press.)

CHARLOTTE, N. C., July 20.—A special meeting of the Board of Governors of the American Cotton Manufacturers' Association was held here to-day to discuss President Miller's telegram to Secretary of Agriculture Wilson regarding the revision of the tariff on cotton. The committee requested that he name the committee to meet Secretary Wilson, President Miller requested that he name the committee to meet Secretary Wilson, President Miller requested that he name the committee to meet Secretary Wilson.

PAYNE LIKES THE TIMES-DISPATCH

Its Evident Wide Circulation Credited With His Rapid Bound to Popularity.

Payne, the great advertiser, in an interview last evening, did not hesitate to credit much of the widespread popularity already attained by himself, his monster free show, and the "Times-Dispatch" to the use of Richmond newspapers, especially The Times-Dispatch.

He is a very heavy user of newspaper space, and has ample means of determining the best advertising mediums for the use of his clients. His own proves the wisdom of his selections.

The surprising cures made in Richmond already and reported through the press, together with the high class of his free entertainments, drew what was one of the largest crowds ever assembled on a single enclosure in this city to his show grounds last night. It was estimated that seven thousand people were present, and their approval was evidenced by frequent applause.

Among the many novel features presented, and what is always the most interesting, too, was the free demonstrations of the efficacy of his great remedies made upon the lame and deaf.

Mr. J. W. Gwin, of No. 1002 Chaffin Street, who had been deaf for twenty-eight years, was made to hear by ordinary conversation during the interesting and breathless silence of the vast multitude in three minutes. It was amusing to watch the growing expression of joy and pleasure appear on the gentleman's countenance as the noises of a great city, long withheld, were brought again to his ears.

Mr. Charles R. Brookman, who was supposed to be hopelessly deaf, and used an ear trumpet, with but one application was made to hear better of the noise, and so announced to the astonished audience.

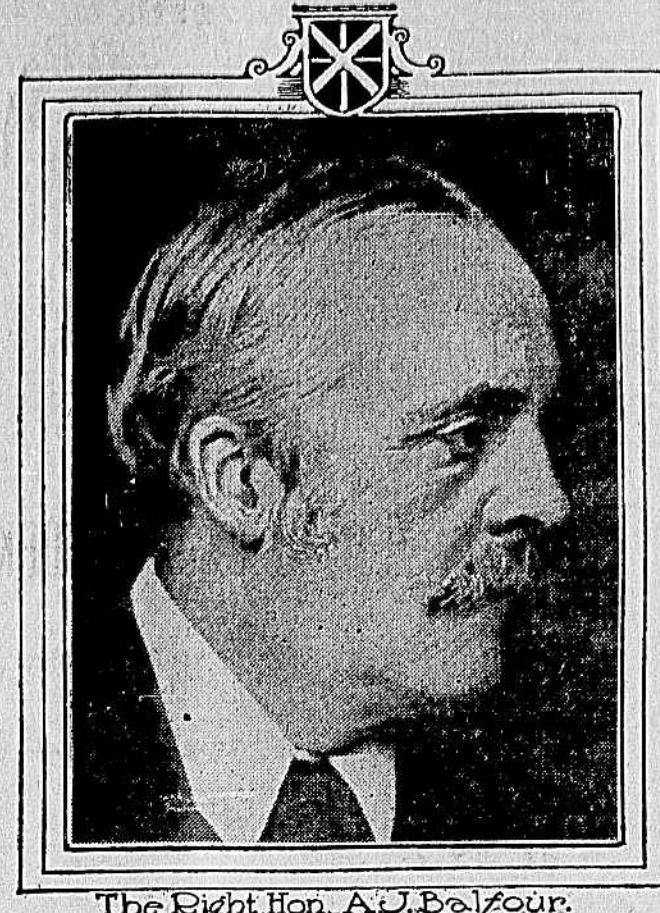

If such wonders can be worked with Payne's Remedies with but one application, there is little doubt of his guarantee of a permanent cure with further treatment being genuine.

Other successful applications were made and so many responded to his invitation that all could not be accommodated in one evening.

Letters from surrounding cities are arriving, in fact, so many that Payne announces the opening of a mail order department, which will answer all correspondence promptly and ship any of the remedies prepaid.

Payne's handsome down town offices at No. 60 East Main Street, were opened yesterday, and were visited by hundreds desiring to learn of the medicines. These offices are open from 9 to 12 and 2 to 5 daily, and are, in addition to his large office tent on the show grounds, informal and gratuitously given and perfect privacy assured all visitors.

Another good show and change of programme is on tap for to-night, and will doubtless be witnessed by another record-breaking crowd.

The Right Hon. A. J. Balfour.

The defeat of the government in the Irish Land Commission matter before the House of Commons last night makes probable the resignation of Premier Balfour, who has clung tenaciously to his office, despite other defeats. The Premier refused last night to indicate what course he would pursue.

BYNUM'S TERM IS MADE SHORTER

Goes to Penitentiary for Twelve Instead of Fifteen Years.

STATE FARM IS PROFITABLE

The Revenue of Last Year From the Cotton Crop

$120,000.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RALEIGH, N. C., July 20.—Raymond D. Bynum was carried to the penitentiary this morning to serve twelve years for the killing of his business partner, J. H. Alford. The sentence was first fixed by Judge Allen, in Wake Superior Court, at fifteen years, but before court adjourned for the term last evening earned pleas in Bynum's behalf by his counsel, notably James H. Pou, resulted in the reduction of the term to twelve years.

The adjournment of the court leaves nothing for J. Rowan Rogers and J. P. Sorrell but for them to serve the additional six months' sentence that was imposed by the judge for embracery in the recent Gattis vs. Kille and Duke case.

Rogers had asked that Sorrell's sentence be imposed on him, as the part Sorrell took was in Rogers's request. However, they are left to serve their sentences. Rogers is an ex-Republican sheriff of the county, and once defeated for election, whose prisoner he now is, and was then, in turn, defeated by the present sheriff, Page.

PLACE FOR SHOPPERS.

The Raleigh Merchants' Association has on foot a movement for the opening of a "shopper's headquarters," a place where visitors to the city for shopping purposes can make headquarters. They are arranging also for the employment of a secretary for all his time to be on duty at this headquarters.

The industrial and commercial growth of the city, the business organization, living about one hundred members, discussed last night plans for tendering a banquet to President Roosevelt on the occasion of his visit to the North Carolina State Fair October 15th and 16th, but postponed definite action for two weeks, so as to have a more definite idea as to the programme that will be arranged for the general entertainment of Roosevelt by the Fair Association.

LAST COTTON SALE.

The State penitentiary has sold the last bale of the 1904 crop of cotton, and the income is $20,000 more than the January estimate; so that the net earnings of the penitentiary for the year, slightly over $150,000, instead of $100,000, were estimated at that time. The farm last year produced 1,195 bales of cotton.

WANTED 1,000 LABORERS.

C. W. Lane Placed Under Bond, But Will Fight the Case.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SALISBURY, N. C., July 20.—At the courthouse in this city to-day a preliminary hearing was had in a matter of interstate interest. The North Carolina revenue act of 1905 provides that every migrant agent or person engaged in procuring laborers for employment out of this State shall pay an annual license tax of $200 to the county and State, and that any one who would appear at that time and pay such tax shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Mr. C. W. Lane, of Eggleston, Va., and secretary of Lane Brothers Company, large railroad contractors and constructors, had distributed circulars stating that he would appear at the depot in this city to-day, when he desired 1,000 laborers to work with him in certain railroad construction in Virginia and West Virginia. He had been of the opinion that the above statute did not apply to him, but the magistrates to-day were of a contrary opinion and held that he was liable for this migrant license tax, and bound him over to the next term of the Superior Court of this county for failure to pay same.

He was further required to pay the tax, which he did not protest. He was bound over to the Superior Court for failure to pay same.

Mr. Lane has employed two of the ablest firms in the State, Overman and Gregory, of Salisbury, and Watson and Buxton, of Winston, and will carry the cases to the Supreme Court.

N. C. BOYS IN CAMP.

Twenty Companies Now Located on Wrightsville Sound.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WILMINGTON, N. C., July 20.—The Second and Third Regiments of the National Guard of North Carolina went into camp to-day at Wrightsville on the beautiful sound of the same name with about 1,000 in line.

Governor Glenn also arrived to-day to stay until Tuesday. He was right royally welcomed by business men, militia and representatives of the city government. There are twenty companies, and to-night the khaki village of white tents, all laid off in perfect order, presents a scene of more than ordinarily pleasing aspect.

Adjutant-General F. R. Robertson, of Charlotte, has put forth great efforts to make the encampment a success. Two huge mess-halls, one hundred feet long, have been built for the men, and each company will have a table. The regular encampment drills, exercises and routine begin to-morrow, to last ten days.

The companies represented are: Second Regiment—Washington, Wilmington, Plymouth, Tarboro (with band), Wilson, Goldsboro (two companies), Lumber Bridge, Fayetteville, Maxton, Clinton and hospital detachment, and hospital detachment, and regiment band, Warren Plains, Oxford, Henderson, Louisville, Franklinton and Sanford.

Receiver Refused.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ASHEVILLE, N. C., July 20.—Judge Fritchard, of the United States Circuit Court, to-day handed down a decision in the case of H. H. Channing vs. the Southern Railway Company, refusing the petition of the plaintiff that a receiver be appointed for the South Carolina and Georgia Division of that road. The plaintiff is a stockholder in the railway company, and claimed that the treasury of the company was being depleted by reason of the numerous suits arising out of the merging of the Southern Railway and the South Carolina and Georgia Railroad.
